1. (C) The Office of Communications nominated [REDACTED] as a candidate for detail to the Inspection Staff of the Office of the Inspector General on 16 August 1977. We are pleased to renew that nomination in November 1978. At the time of the original nomination, [REDACTED] was serving as Chief of the Career Management Division. In that position, he had developed intensive and extensive experience with personnel counseling, personnel grievances and management of the Office of Communications' personnel development programs, including the [REDACTED]. Since that time, [REDACTED] has been detailed to the former Intelligence Community Staff as an Office of Communications representative to that Staff. Most recently, he returned to the Office of Communications and is presently the Acting Chief, Communications Security Division.
